My Darling Mack,

Hooray! Thank goodness we've got a home at last. I'm so relieved and so happy. I feel 1,000% better after talking with you tonight. Now I'm just anxious to get there and be together as a family again. I hope this next week goes fast!

I'll talk to the movers first thing in the morning, and then I'll notify the Godwins (after I know exactly when the movers will be able to load our stuff). I'll drop Manuel and Janie a note too and ask Manuel to drop the screen off in the garage on his way home one day and then I'll go by and see them on the day I'm there - probably this Saturday - and get the key and say good-bye.

At this moment I'm not sure if Mother and Daddy will bring us up or not. Since they aren't here this evening I'll have to see about that tomorrow. They've gone to the Wine + Food Society annual dinner for the wines. I know they're having a wonderful meal and good wine at Shady Oaks.

I went to the dentist yesterday and will have to go back Thursday to have some teeth filled! Darnit. I haven't had any cavities in a long time, but Joe found some this time. He X-rayed my whole mouth to make sure he gets all the bad spots taken care of. Lovely!

I did a little shopping yesterday for myself. I hope you won't be mad. I bought a new pair of black kid high heels and a pair of black kid loafers. They were on sale and both together were only $13²⁵. I just couldn't resist because I needed them so badly.

Shall I get any more money from our savings account before I come up?

As soon as I know exactly how and when I'll be able to come trip to Follett I'll let you know. Since you will need to get the 403 up there sooner or later, it seems sensible for us to bring it when we come. Just exactly who or how is still up for grabs. What are your ideas?

your decision to change the K.V.T. to a Thursday paper really sounds great. It should work out better for all concerned. Maybe you can use the T.V. schedule idea in it now. Hope things will go o.k. on this week's issues of both papers and next weeks too. The bad weather is going to take its toll tho, I'm sure, not only on your business but everyone's.

Hope the 300 yards of mud will dry out so you can drive all the way to the plant! What a mess! (That's the understatement of the year I'll bet!)

Well, when you get this it will undoubtedly be Valentine's Day. Happy Valentine's Day, my sweetheart. Will you be my Valentine?

I love you very much, my Darling. Take care of yourself and we'll see you next Tues. or Wednesday, I hope.

Kathy misses her Daddy so much and she needs you my Love. She's well and doing fine tho, Honey. She is such a little love.

Mother and Daddy just returned and I told them that you'd found a house etc. Daddy was very pleased. But, as you might expect, Mother began to get ~~so~~ sentimental and say she didn't want me to leave, etc. etc. Oh, dear. I hope this doesn't turn into one of "those kind" of weeks. Enough. I'll make out. o.k. with Mother.

Well, take care, My Love. I love you and can hardly wait to be back in your arms again. All our kisses to you.

All my love always,
Debbie
