Valentine's Day, 1964

My Darling Mack,

Thank you so very much, Sweetheart, for the beautiful red roses. They arrived this evening and I was so surprised and very thrilled to receive them. You are so sweet and thoughtful. Thank you, Honey. I love you so much.

I finished working for Daddy at noon today. He took Mother, Rita, and me to lunch at the Town Club. It was very nice, but sort of sad too. This will probably be the last time one of Daddy's daughters works for him. Both he and Rita got sort of sentimental about it all which touched me very deeply.

I had to go back to the dentist today for the third time ~~today~~ this week. He polished up the three fillings he put in yesterday and cleaned my whole mouth. I paid my bill in cash afterwards - to the tune of $36<sup>00</sup>!! I almost fainted! The whole mouth X-rays are what cost so much - $15<sup>00</sup>. Oh well, it's done now so there's no backing out. My salary for this week was only $34<sup>50</sup> so I had to use some I had saved from last week in order to make the #36<sup>00</sup>. I hope I don't ever have a dental bill like that again.

I've loaded the 403 with the 6 boxes of china from here, plus shoes, clothes, baby toys, etc. to take down to S'ville. in the morning for the movers to bring up to Follett.

I'm going to give the Godwins the key to the house tomorrow and ask them to pay #25<sup>00</sup> of Feb.'s rent, if that's agreeable with them.

I hope they won't think that's too much, because we need the money.

I'll send the #200<sup>00</sup> to you and the copy of the movers sheet after they make it out tomorrow.

Look for the Central moving van at 8 A.M. Tuesday morning! I'll give them your instructions to come to the school house

Mother, Kathy, and I will come straight to the Motel Tuesday. I feel sure it will be 5:30 or so before we get there but who knows.

Keep your fingers crossed that we'll have good weather to drive in.

Mother will probably plan to fly out of Amarillo Thursday afternoon or Friday to Phoenix to meet Daddy. We'll see.

I certainly loved talking with you last night. I miss you so much and hearing your voice makes me feel better.

I'm so sorry the Steinprice (sp?)
house didn't work out, but the one you got sounds o.k. I think your idea of our taking the 1st floor bedroom is the best deal since it's nearer the bath.

Kathy's room can be upstairs
and we'll still be able to hear her if she cries in the night.
When she gets to walking and climbing out of her bed we'll have to put a gate across the top of the stairs so she won't fall - but that will be a while yet.

Well, I'd better close for now. I'll be leaving for Sville at 7 AM.

Take care, Darling. Your precious daughter sends you her love and kisses as I do too. We'll see you Tuesday.

I love you,
Debbie
