Thursday night

My Darling Mack,

This will just be a short one for I am beat tonight. I can't go to bed without telling you that I love you so very much.

How are you? I miss you very much, my Love. Please take care of yourself.

We had Mexican food tonight with Rita, Ervin, Steve, and 3 others, then played bridge over here. It was a lovely evening, but it's late now.

I worked from about 9:30 to 3:30 this afternoon. Rita and I picked out a precious little top & ruffled ganties for Wendy and Barbara's little girl. I'll wrap it and write them a note and get it in the mail soon.

Hope all is going well with the papers and otherwise. The weather is still bad I guess which makes it difficult. Hope it clears up soon.

Please take care and remember,
Kathy and I love and miss you very much. Kisses from us both.

All my love always,
Debbie
